Boys Beat Roping Records a

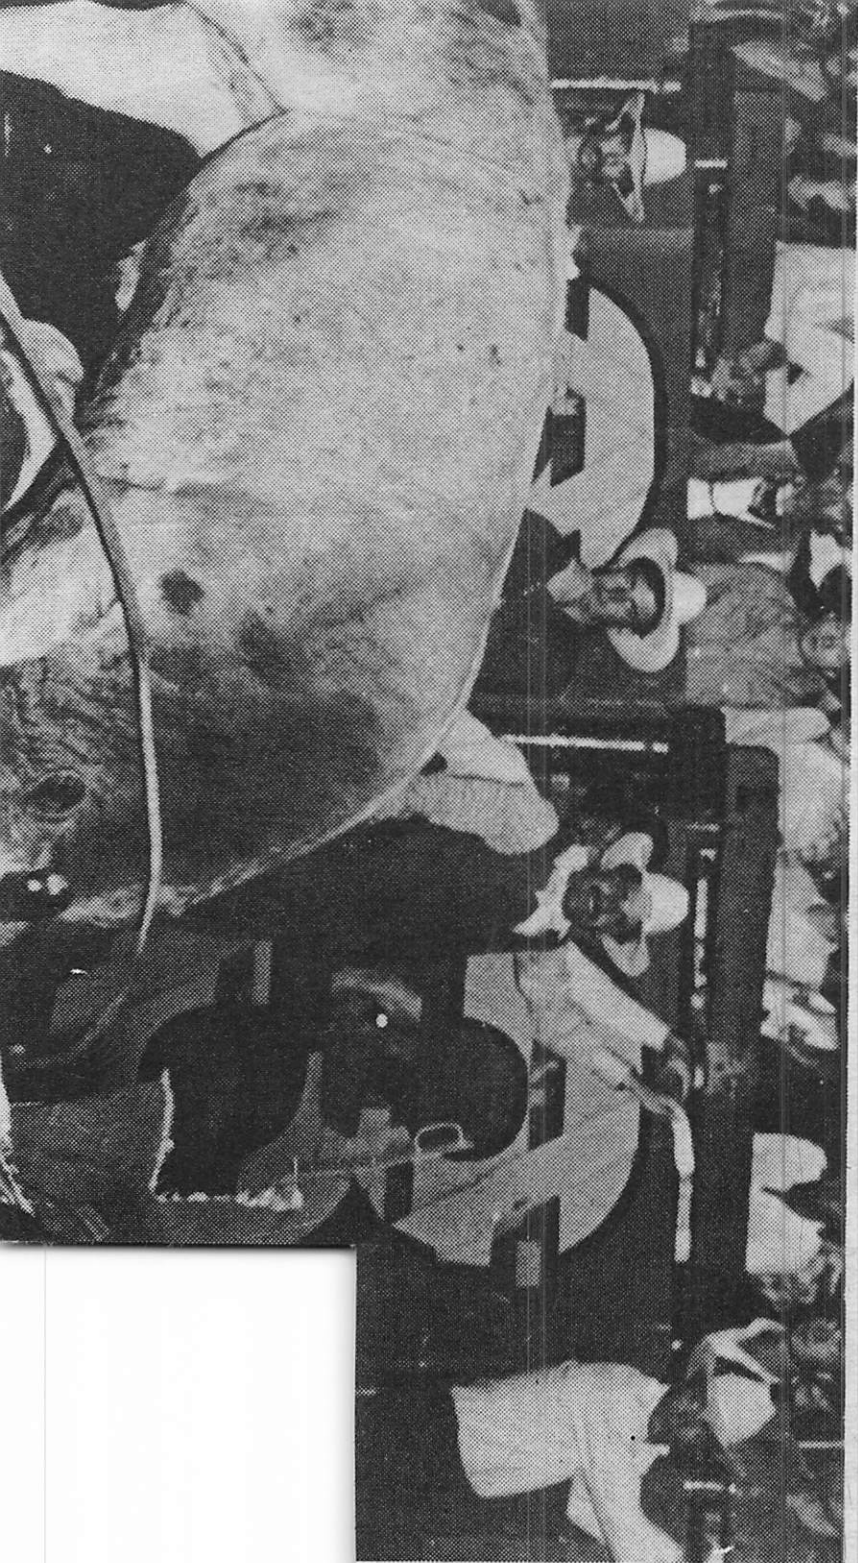

Stampede Saturday as the return of clear skies and sunny weather encouraged not only an enthusiastic audience but also drew a record number of spectators for the final performance where a sell-out crowd set a new record as more than 8,200 fans jammed into the arena.

Dee Pickett and Mike Beers, world champions, set the record for the new Ute Stampede event of team roping the first night when they roped a calf around the horns and two back feet in just 6.7 seconds.
